

Choo-choo! All about trains

Name: _____

Read some interesting information about trains.

Trains move on tracks. They use diesel, electricity, or steam to move.

Trains move faster than road vehicles.

Trains can carry more goods than road vehicles.

Trains can travel for a long time without having to stop.

Trains that transport goods are called freight trains.

Trains that transport people are called passenger trains.

Colour in the picture.

